DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

1. Claims 1-116 were originally filed.

The preliminary amendment to the claims received on August 10, 2006 canceled claims 2-18, 20, 22-24, 26-33, 35-37, 39-40, 43, 45, 47-48, 51-102, 104-108, 111-113, and 115 and amended claims 21, 25, 46, 109, and 114.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1 and 25, drawn to a method of isolating cells.

Group II, claim(s) 19, 21, and 25, drawn to a method of isolating a plurality of cells.

Group III, claim(s) 34, drawn to a method of isolating cells via antisense RNA or shRNA.

Group IV, claim(s) 38, drawn to a method of identifying a compound.

Group V, claim(s) 41 and 42, drawn to a method of identifying a compound.

Group VI, claim(s) 44, drawn to a method of identifying genetic recombination.

Group VII, claim(s) 46 and 49, drawn to a cell.

Group VIII, claim(s) 50, drawn to a method of generating transgenic animal.

Group IX, claim(s) 103, 109, 110, and 114, drawn to a library of mammalian cells.

Group X, claim(s) 116, drawn to a method of identifying a compound.

Art Unit: 1639

3. The groups of inventions listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common technical feature is a cell “potentially expressing RNA” which is known in the art. For example, Tsuji et al. (Biophysical Journal 78: 3260-3274, 2000; provided by applicants in the IDS) teach cells comprising mRNA and methods of analyzing mRNA in cells via utilization of two fluorescently labeled oligos which can hybridize to the mRNA (please refer to the entire reference particularly the abstract; Materials and methods section).

REQUIREMENT FOR UNITY OF INVENTION

4. As provided in 37 CFR 1.475(a), a national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept (“requirement of unity of invention”). Where a group of inventions is claimed in a national stage application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression “special technical features” shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

5. The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternatives within a single claim. See 37 CFR 1.475(e).

Art Unit: 1639

WHEN CLAIMS ARE DIRECTED TO MULTIPLE CATEGORIES OF INVENTIONS

6. As provided in 37 CFR 1.475(b), a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
- (2) A product and process of use of said product; or
- (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
- (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
- (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.

7. Otherwise, unity of invention might not be present. See 37 CFR 1.475(c).

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

9. The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

10. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions have unity of invention (37 CFR 1.475(a)), applicant must provide reasons in support thereof. Applicant may submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. Where such evidence or admission is provided by applicant, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

11. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
